LACTALIS

Your French trusted pharmaceutical lactose partner

Lactalis Ingredients Pharma shares Lactalis Group's vision of delivering the best to our customers. Benefiting from the experience and technology of decades of commitment and passion, we are able today to enter the excipients' market as a trusted pharmaceutical lactose supplier with our first range of excipients: Lactalpha.

Lactalis Group, world's leader of the dairy industry

Lactalis Ingredients Pharma arises from the rich history of Lactalis Group, starting from its birth in Laval, France, in 1933. Since then, the vocation of the Group has been to transform milk in all its forms to offer healthy and tasty products to the broadest range of consumers.

Dedicated to valorizing every milk component through dairy ingredients powders, Lactalis Ingredients is recognized for its technical, industrial and market expertise. Lactose, as one of the most important nutrients in milk and whey, has always been at the heart of Lactalis Ingredient's attention. Lactalis Ingredients has been producing lactose for more than 50 years, while enriching its expertise over the decades through the merge and purchase of industrial facilities.
